Praying For Our Nation

"For what great nation is there that has a god so near to it as is the LORD our God whenever we call on Him? Or what great nation is there that has statutes and judgments as righteous as this whole law which I am setting before you today? Only give heed to yourself and keep your soul diligently, so that you do not forget the things which your eyes have seen and they do not depart from your heart all the days of your life, but make them known to your sons and your grandsons" (Deuteronomy 4:7-9 NASB).

"In the LORD I take refuge; how can you say to my soul, "Flee as a bird to your mountain; for, behold, the wicked bend the bow, they make ready their arrow upon the string to shoot in darkness at the upright in heart. If the foundations are destroyed, what can the righteous do"? (Psalm 11:1-3 NASB)

- 1 Moses declared to Israel that they were blessed beyond all the nations in that God was near to them, especially as they cried out to Him in prayer (Deuteronomy 4:7). Pray that our nation will hunger for the manifest presence of God and cry out to Him for revival and spiritual awakening.
- 2 Pray that as a nation we will never forget God's presence with us and His mighty deeds, those loving demonstrations of power through which He has protected and blessed us over the years. Pray that we will be faithful in declaring God's great works to the upcoming generations (Deuteronomy 4:9).
- 3 In the midst of worldly opposition against God, His Word, and His children, pray that your fellow Christians will take refuge in God (Psalm 11:1), standing firmly with Christ who is the Chief Cornerstone and Head of the Church (Isaiah 28:16; Ephesians 1:22).
- 4 Knowing that God is worthy of being obeyed and any nation that submits to His lordship will be blessed, pray that America will, once again, experience the kind of revival and spiritual awakening that moves us to become known as a nation "Whose God is the LORD" (Psalm 33:12).
- 5 As the last days draw nearer, pray that our nation will not fall prey to false prophets. As lawlessness increases, pray that the Church's love for God will remain fervently hot and not grow cold (Matthew 24:11-12).

- 6 Pray that the church will come to understand what it means to be a holy nation, a people for God's own possession who proclaim the excellencies of Him who has called us out of darkness into His marvelous light (1 Peter 2:9).
- 7 Many nations through the years have worshiped gods literally made by the hands of men (2 Kings 17:29). Pray that the people of our nation will turn away from worshipping the creations of man in whatever form they take today and come to worship the one true God.
- 8 Pray that Christians in our nation will honor God by placing themselves in subjection to the governing authorities, accepting the truth that there is no authority except from God, and those which exist are established by God (Romans 13:1).
- 9 Pray that struggling churches will rely on God, trusting Him to cultivate, sow, and multiply men within their ranks as they seek to fully align themselves with His will and activity (Ezekiel 36:9-10).
- 10 Pray that Christians in our nation will completely turn away from and refuse to imitate all the detestable practices of the occult and false religions found within our nation (Deuteronomy 18:9-13).
- 11 Knowing that righteousness exalts a nation, pray that Christians all across America will walk in the kind of righteousness that is birthed out of a genuine love relationship with Jesus (Proverbs 14:34).

12 Pray that our nation will no longer spiritually defile itself by its sinful ways and deeds. Pray that we as a people will be so thoroughly repentant as to invite God's presence in deeper, richer ways that transform our land (Ezekiel 36:17).

13 Pray that the leaders of our nation will refuse to call evil good and good evil. Pray that we as a people will not substitute darkness for light and light for darkness, or substitute bitter for sweet and sweet for bitter (Isaiah 5:20).

14 Pray that God will wipe out the religion of humanism that is so often propagated within our nation and restore to all a healthy fear of God, letting the nations know that they are but men (Psalm 9:20).

15 Pray that America's judges will consistently turn away from justifying the wicked for a bribe or taking away the rights of the ones who are in the right (Isaiah 5:23).

16 Pray that men and women across our nation will fear God and do that which is right. As a God who shows no partiality, everyone who manifests this attitude and acts accordingly is welcome to Him (Acts 10:34-35).

17 Pray that every family within our nation will turn to the Lord and worship Him, offering Him the kind of extravagant praise of which He is so worthy (Psalm 22:27).

18 When the sons of Israel inhabited the Promised Land, they were commanded by God to be holy since He had set them apart from the other nations (Leviticus 20:26). Pray that American believers will understand the importance of being sanctified by God and will repentantly lay aside every sinful custom and manner of living that keeps us from walking according to God's holy standards.

19 Pray that God's lovingkindness, truth, righteousness, and peace will permeate the culture of our nation and that our nation will, once again, lift high the name of Jesus (Psalm 85:10).

20 When God's vineyard, Israel, failed to produce good spiritual fruit, God removed its hedge and broke down its protective wall. It was filled with briars and thorns and no rain fell on it. Pray that the American Church will produce the fruit that comes from obedience and will be blessed by God's spiritual and physical protection (Isaiah 5:5-7).

21 Pray that God will cause His indignation toward our nation to cease and will restore the joy of seeing people saved in every church that lifts up the name and gospel of Jesus (Psalm 85:4).

22 Pray that God will continually be gracious to our nation, permitting Himself to be sought by those who do not ask for Him and found by those who do not seek Him (Isaiah 65:1).

23 Because God is great and greatly to be praised, pray that churches all over America will proclaim good tidings of His salvation from day to day and will tell of His glory among the nations. His wonderful deeds among all the peoples (Psalm 96:2-4).

24 Pray that God's holy name will endure forever across our nation and that His glory will increase as long as the sun shines upon this land (Psalm 72:17).

25 Because the children of Israel obeyed the commandments of God, the other nations saw them as a wise and understanding people (Deuteronomy 4:5-6). Pray that America will again be seen as a wise nation by returning to the kind of mindset that reflects an obedience to the commands of Christ.

26 Pray that we will have the heart of David when it comes to praising God, giving thanks to Him before the people of this land and singing His praise before the other nations of the world. Pray that our nation will exalt His name above all the earth (Psalm 57:9, 11).

27 Since the Lord forever watches and rules over our nation by His might, pray that the rebellious within our borders will not be able to exalt themselves within His sight (Psalm 66:7).

28 Pray that the American Church will not be distracted from worshipping God by its pursuit of pleasure, but instead, will pay attention to His deeds while meditating on the work of His hands (Isaiah 5:12).

29 Pray that Christians all over our nation will be glad in the Lord and sing for joy as He judges us with uprightness and guides us into His holy will (Psalm 67:4).

30 Pray that the gospel of the kingdom will be preached in the whole world as a testimony to all the nations (Matthew 24:14).

Celebrate Recovery

With

San Francisco Temple C. A. Life Recovery Support Group

Did you know...?

San Francisco Temple Christian Assembly has a support group called Life Recovery which is committed to helping people overcome addictions, shortcomings, and habits.

- If you smoke cigarettes, abuse alcohol, use illegal drugs...
- If you abuse prescription medication, overeat or gamble away your rent money...
- If you can't stop watching pornography, have an anger problem, are always depressed or struggle with gripping fear,

Please come to the next Life Recovery Support group and hear about God's Solution to these problems. If you need help, we are here for you. But if you ask for and seek help, you are on your way to victory. And remember "If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed." John 8:36

WORD OF WISDOM STUDY CORNER

El Olam (Everlasting God)

Lord, you have been our dwelling place [our refuge, our sanctuary, our stability] in all generations. Before the mountains were born Or before you had given birth to the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, you [the eternal] God. Psalm 90: 1-2 AMP

As 19th century preacher Charles Spurgeon once wrote: What we call past, present, and future, he wraps up in one eternal now. And if you say that he loves you now, you thereby say that he loved you yesterday, he loved you in the past eternity, and he will love you forever, for now with God is past, present, and future. Rev. 22:13 NIV

"⁵Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ; ⁶And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled." 2 Cor 10:5-6 (KJV)

A WORD REGARDING: HEALING THROUGH ABANDONMENT

REMEMBER: GOD WILL NEVER LEAVE OR FORSAKEN YOU!

if you or someone you know has experienced abandonment issues, you know the deep emotional pain which comes from someone leaving when they should have stayed. Your parents (mother and/or father left when you were younger, your husband/wife left you. Abandonment communicates, "You're not worthy of loving". Psalm 68:5 reads: (God is) A father to the fatherless, a defender of widows, is God in his holy dwelling. Psalm 27:10(NLT) - Even if my father and mother abandon me, the LORD will hold me close. The effects of abandonment can manifest in different ways, such as depression, addiction, self-esteem issues, and anxiety. Other characteristics may include -always taking the blame for problems, avoiding rejection or cycles of unhealthy relationships, difficulty forming friendships, fear of commitment and hasty attachment to people followed by equally hasty detachments. When someone abandons you, it's common for your self-esteem to drop because you take on the responsibility for the person leaving. You assume it was your fault. This is often not true. Instead, people with a fear of abandonment need to recognize it isn't always their fault. The fear of abandonment is a normal emotion, but it shouldn't control your life. If your sense of self is rooted in the affirmation of others, then you will always live on edge, wondering, "What do other people think of me"? "Will they leave?" Moving beyond these fears will require you to develop a sense of confidence rooted in your own identity as a person and child of God. Psalm 139:14 "I will praise thee; for I am fearfully and wonderfully made." This speaks of the care and attention in which God has made us. God knew what he was doing when he formed us, he also knew what we would have to endure. God makes no mistakes!

Emotional pain of abandonment can create feelings of insecurity and trauma. God says in Isaiah 61:1 " He has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim freedom for the captives". God does not want us in bondage with our past. God can give you the security and love you desire. Psalm 18:19— "He led me to a place of safety, he rescued me – because he delights in me".

Abandonment can also leave you feeling as if you can't ever have a good life. God sent his son Jesus so that everyone could have an abundant and full life. This is a powerful promise of his commitment to his people. It is also a promise that God will never abandon you. Being abandoned can leave you feeling as if you can't trust anyone to be there for you. God says he will never leave you. You can feel secure with God. He is always with you. The main key to healing is learning to forgive (even though they may not deserve it). God forgives us and wants us to forgive those who have hurt us. Colossians 3:13 - Bear with each other and forgive one another.

Seeking help from the Wellness Ministry doesn't mean that you are somehow "damaged goods," it just means that in your very human weakness you may need some extra support to address your fears and gain back your reassurance that God has not forsaken you. We at the Wellness Ministry can help you work through your fear of abandonment, or any other concerns you may be struggling with, along with providing additional tools/resources to help cope with your doubts and fears.

Remember, people may fail us, hurt us, even abandon us, because we are all human. But the God who created the heavens and earth promised us he will never abandon us. The San Francisco Temple Christian Assembly Wellness Ministry is here to support you in your time of need. Please contact the church office for more information.

“Perfect Peace In Troublous Times!”

Becoming discouraged and disheartened are all too easy during these times. How we live our lives today have changed due to COVID-19. Some of us are having financial pressures and social isolation from our spouses and loved ones. Our daily routines have been altered. We worry about getting sick. Will we lose our jobs and how will my future look? The loss of family members and close friends have made our lives feel like we are out of control and unclear of what to do. Due to misinformation and rumors, we are not sure what to believe or who to trust.

Despite your best efforts, you may find yourself feeling helpless, sad, angry, irritable, hopeless, anxious or afraid. You may have trouble concentrating on typical tasks, changes in appetite, body aches and pains, or difficulty sleeping. Or you may struggle facing routine chores.

Sometimes we just need someone to talk to or someone to listen to us. If you feel like this, please feel free to contact the SFTCA Wellness Ministry. We are here for you. We will listen and share a word of GOD with you so you can get closer to HIM spiritually. You can and will feel comfortable in a very confidential setting or conference.

THE SFTCA WELLNESS MINISTRY IS AVAILABLE TO SUPPORT YOU.
